

COLLECTIVE EXCURSIONS ON ADULA'S PEAK ACCOMPANIED BY TICINO'S MOUNTAIN GUIDES ASSOCIATION

Have you ever thought of climbing Adula?

It is the highest peak in Ticino, a classic route, an initiation into mountaineering, a grandiose viewpoint close to you...

We organise for you ascents to this summit accompanied by a Ticino Alpine Guide. To register or for more information, please contact us on + 41 77 459 96 11; or by email at adula@utoe.ch.

The journey begins near the Luzzzone dam, at 1600 m altitude. You follow the path along the Val Carassina, along an open, unpaved and flat road. At the end of the valley, we climb up to the Capanna Adula UTOE at 2393 m, where we await you for dinner, sleep and breakfast.

On the first day, the guide will be available at the hut from early afternoon to organise a mountaineering training session for participants: basics, how to rope up and use the technical equipment. An enriching moment to learn some practical aspects of the discipline and develop a good team spirit for the day of the ascent.

The following morning, we proceed on the glacial moraine, which leads up to the Bresciana glacier where, after having equipped ourselves, we skirt its crest until the conquest (in a total of around four hours) of the summit, at 3402 m.

In the late morning we return to the hut and in the afternoon to our destinations.

N.B. If you are interested in the ascent to Adula along the Via Malvaglia, please contact us!
